

Apple Preposition Story

- Fun Apple/Fall themed preposition story.
- To assemble the story...
  - Print pages and cut in half, staple together to make a book
  - Cut out the apples from the "apple page" and have the child glue the apples as indicated in the story or...
  - Make a reusable story yourself by laminating the books and the apples and attaching Velcro to have the child place the apples on the book or have them tell you where the apples are located!
- Target population: Preschool aged children
