

What's all the talk about?

Celebrate and Educate! May is Better Speech and Hearing Month

Directions: Celebrate Better Speech and Hearing month by promoting the Speech Language Pathology profession and by educating others about the invaluable services an SLP offers. Print out the following five pages and distribute one each week in May. Colleagues, fellow staff members, patients/clients and their families will benefit from this information. Let every one know that speech therapy is what all the talk is about!