

Being a Greeter

Being a greeter is a big responsibility.

When I get to the front door, I sit quietly with the staff members.

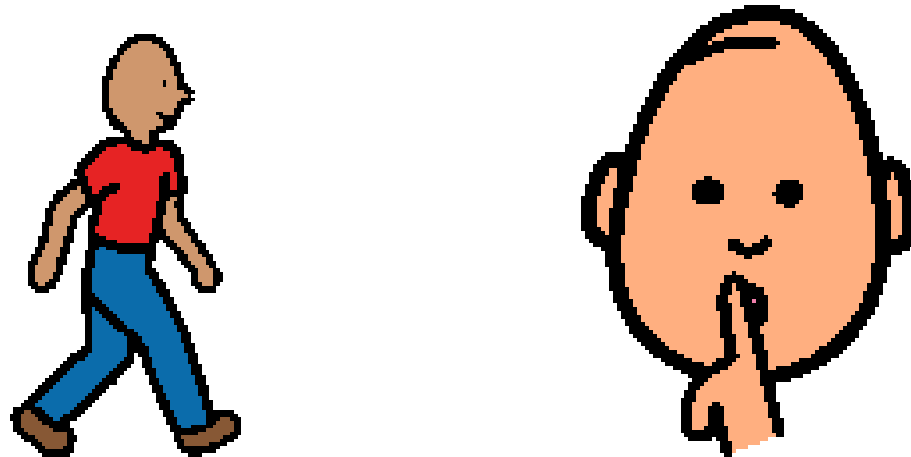

When someone enters the school,

I can say "Good Morning."

I can also say “How can I help you?”

When I am all done greeting, I walk back to class quietly with my teacher.