

This week in Speech : Talk about it together!

Thanksgiving Entertaining

Company's coming! When company comes to your house, who is it?
Who visits your family for the day?

How can you help your family get ready for guests?

When guests arrive, what can you do to help?

So many coats! Where do you keep all the guests' coats at your house?

What are hors d'oeuvres? What kind of appetizers does your family like to serve?

What are the rules in your house about kids eating and drinking in rooms other than the kitchen or dining room?

After guests leave, what can you do to help clean up?

Do you ever clean your room before guests arrive?

Some times guests stay overnight.
Do you ever get to share your room with an over night guest?

Whose house does your family like to visit?

What is a hostess gift?
Do you ever take something when you visit someone?

Are you a polite guest? Tell us some tips on being a good guest.

Grandparents' home or an aunt or uncle's home is a fun place to visit.
How can you be helpful when visiting a relative?

Sometimes we travel far too visit relatives or friends.
Tell about a far away trip you have to take to visit someone special.

What do you like to pack for an overnight trip to a relative's house?

What is a relative?

Your mom's sister is called your...

Your dad's sister is called your...

Your mom's brother is called your...

This week in Speech : Talk about it together!

Thanksgiving Entertaining

Your dad's brother is called your...

What is a cousin? How many do you have?

Different moms cook different things.

What do you do when you are at someone's house when they offer you something you don't normally eat?

Have you ever tried a new food and were surprised that you liked it?

Where will you be on Thanksgiving Day? Will you be a visitor, or will you be a host?

What is a host or hostess?

Who sets the table at your house?

How does the Thanksgiving Day table look different from a regular dinner?

Some hostesses work hard to make the Thanksgiving table look extra pretty.

What could they do to the table to make it look special?

What might you say to someone who has gone to a lot of trouble to make a pretty table?

What could you say to a guest when they arrive at your home to make them feel so welcome?

What could you say to the host family when you arrive at their house to make them know you are happy to be there? Who do you give a big hug when you visit?