

Directions – Classroom Inclusion Prompt

I made this prompt when a 7th grade student was going into a general education Home & Careers class. This was the first class that he had ever attended that was not in a self-contained class setting. It is very simple to use.

1. The green box is for teacher prompts during group activities.
2. The yellow box is for the student to respond to the teacher without disrupting the class.

Kelly Squires