

When time is up, I need to stop what I'm doing. I need to put my things away. I need to follow directions given to the whole class.

When time is up, I stop what I'm doing.

I put my materials away and move to the next activity.

When I follow directions given to the class, my teachers and parents are proud of me. I feel happy and proud.

