

Thanksgiving Following Directions Activity

The purpose of this activity is for students to practice following oral directions using concept words above, below, and beside. Sample directions are included and may be modified to meet the abilities of your students. Once a direction is completed, have the student state what they did to follow the direction. This will give them an opportunity to use the locational words.

Created by: Sally Bearry
Upper Pittsgrove School
Monroeville, NJ
sbearry@upsmailbox.net