

These are hand tools used to tighten and loosen screws.

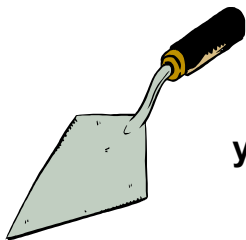

These are worn to protect our eyes when working with tools.

This tool has a long wooden or metal handle with a heavy metal head, used for pounding.

These tools are used to grip, hold and twist as well as tighten and loosen nuts, bolts and pipes.

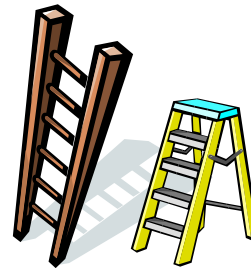

This tool can be used in your garden for small plants or with mortar and bricks.

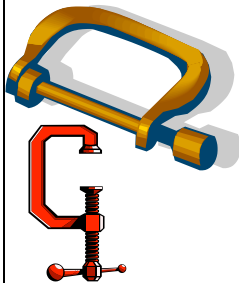

These tools are used to paint your walls quickly in a “wide” area.

Use this tool has a long wooden handle with a sharp metal blade attached to it, used to cut wood.

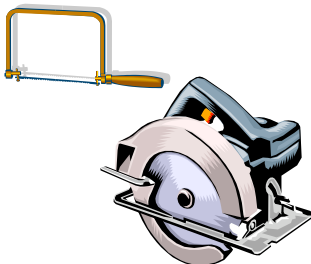

These tools are used to help you climb up to a higher place.

These tools are used to hold two glued things together (usually wood) until they dry.

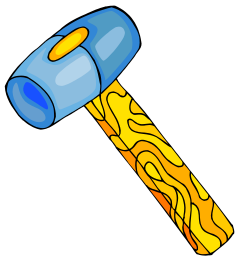

These tools are used for removing snow and/or dirt from an area.

These tools are very sharp tools used to cut wood.

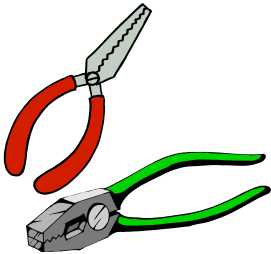

This tool is a power tool that helps make holes in hard things like wood, walls or metal.

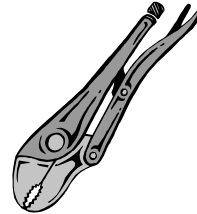

This tool is used to “tap” or gently “bang” things into place.

This tool tells us if things are flat or straight. It has an air bubble that moves to the middle when it’s straight.

These tools are used to hold tightly onto something, pull things out or bend wire.

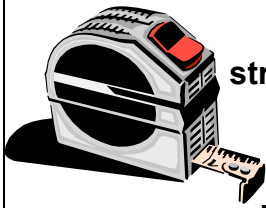

This is a hand tool used to clamp onto things such as pipes so that you can tighten and loosen the nuts around them.

This is a tool used to sweep grass or leaves together into a pile. It has a long handle and plastic or metal teeth.

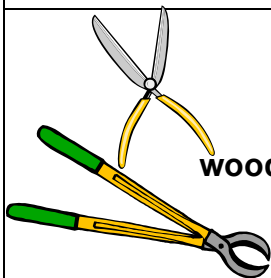

This is a container used to hold your tools. It has a handle so it can be carried from place to place.

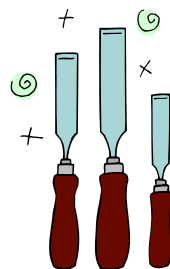

This is a tool that has a long strip of metal used for measuring. It has markings on it to measure inches, feet and yards.

This is a tool a farmer uses to move hay and feed to different areas.

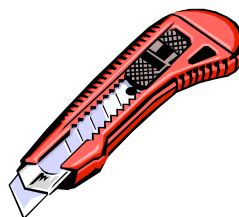

These tools have long wooden or metal handles and sharp blades used to clip branches.

This tool has a handle and a sharp blade. It is used to chip wood, metal or stone. A sculptor uses this.

This tool is HOT! It is used to weld metal pieces together.

This is a sharp tool used to open boxes with it’s blade.